8) In this office letter No.C.54 dated the 27th September 1914, the Chief Court was requested to make temporary arrangements for the immediate relief of Mr. K. Lakshminarnaiya, who was appointed as acting Subordinate Judge, and to submit proposals for an acting appointment of Munsiff in his place.

Paper under disposal.

9) 2. The Chief Court have made and also given effect to the following arrangements:-

(i) Mr. S.A. Vaidesvara Iyer, B.A., B.L., Sheristadar of the District and Sessions Court, Bangalore, was nominated as Munsiff of the last class and has been posted to act as Deputy Registrar of the Chief Court.

(ii) Mr. B. Venkoba Rao, acting Registrar, Chief Court and permanent Deputy Registrar was, on relief by Mr. N.T. Gopaliengar, transferred as 1st Munsiff, Bangalore.

10) 3. Formal sanction of Government is now sought for these arrangements.

11) 4. The procedure adopted by the Chief Court in this matter is not altogether free from objection. Transfers of Munsiffs require the previous approval of Government, while the permanent transfer of the Deputy Registrar as 1st Munsiff is virtually a modification of the Government Order passed only a few months ago appointing him as the permanent Deputy Registrar of the Chief Court. The post of Deputy Registrar is included in the cadre of Munsiffs and when a vacancy arose by the transfer of Mr. Venkoba Rao a selection should have been made after a consideration of all the candidates eligible for the post. It has been brought to notice that Mr. Vaidesvara Iyer is comparatively a junior and it is necessary to insist upon a broader field of selection being adopted hereafter than the Judicial Department proper in view of the improvement of the prospects of Munsiffs.

Sir,

Referring to your letter N^o J 2150 / cts 71-14-3 dated 7th Decr, request -ing that fresh proposals in regard to the acting appointment of the Deputy Registrar of this Court may be forwarded after taking into consideration all the eligible candidates both in the public service and at the Bar, I am directed to state that this Court nominated W. S. A. Vaideswara Iyer in the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. K. Lakshmi Narasimha after one consideration of the qualifications of all the registered candidates for the office of Munsiff whether in service or at the Bar, and of one officer whose case was brought to their notice though his name is not on the Register.

A list of all candidates with their qualifications and testimonials is is maintained in this Court and it cannot be expected that the Judges should hunt up the civil lists for eligible persons in their departments who may or may not be desirous of serving as magistrates but who have not ~~been~~ ^{been} to register their names in this Court.

over 90 years

The Judges are of course quite willing to consider the claims of all qualified persons who may indicate their willingness to serve in the judicial department, but do not feel called upon if they have eligible registered candidates, to go out of their way to ascertain if there may not be scattered through the services ^{other} equally eligible persons who would be willing to serve if asked.

they are
Call for lists

And the Judges do not consider that the office of magistrate ought to be regarded as one to be looked for in the way of ordinary promotion by officers of other branches of the service: they do not therefore consider it their duty on each occasion on which a vacancy arises to ascertain whether the next senior officer to whom the appointment would be promotion is willing to take it and is eligible for it.

Bolton

But the Judges have no objection whatever to consider in all vacancies the names of officers which may be furnished to them by the governments, or by the heads of the departments, and venture to suggest that if the government so desires, instructions may be given that they should be supplied half yearly with a list of officers duly qualified, willing to serve as magistrates and eligible for that office in the opinion of the head of their department, or their immediate superior.

In the case at present under discussion, the Judges are satisfied that Mr S. H. Vaideswara Iyer is an officer well suited to the office in which he is at present acting: he has worked in it quite satisfactorily during the past 5 months and he has the particular qualification that he has previous experience of the administrative work of a civil court.

I am to state however that the nomination already made seems to require revision, because although the office of Deputy Registrar is graded with that of magistrates, the Deputy Registrar is not a Judge of a civil court, and his appointment

I

appointment is not governed by section 4(c) of the Civil Courts Regulation. Mr S. H. Vaideewara Dyr was nominated in the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr K. Lakshminarayana and then appointed to act as Deputy Registrar, Mr J. Venkoba Rao being sent to the Munsiff's Court.

The Judge doubts whether this is — technically correct: the posting of Mr J. Venkoba Rao to a Munsiff's Court should perhaps technically be regarded as the appointment of a Munsiff and not the transfer of a Munsiff, means off Mr J. Venkoba Rao as Deputy Registrar not being a Judge of a Civil Court. The Judge regrets that the nomination of Mr S. H. Vaideewara Dyr was thus technically defective, and desires to take this opportunity of revising it.

I am therefore to report, in modification of my letter No $\frac{1460}{90}$ dated 9th October last, that the Chief Court under section 4(c) of the Civil Courts Regulation nominates Mr J. Venkoba Rao Deputy Registrar of the Chief Court and an officer graded with the 3rd grade of Munsiff to be a Munsiff of the 3rd grade and to act in the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr K. Lakshminarayana, and under section 7 of the Chief Court Regulation

Class

Regulation appoints, subject to the sanction of government, Mr S. A. Vaideewara Dyett as Deputy Registrar of the District in the vacancy caused by the appointments of Mr J. Venkoba Rao.

The Judge trusts that the Government will accept the nomination of Mr J. Venkoba Rao who is one of the senior officers graded with the 3rd grade of Munsifs, and that they will not withhold sanction, in the circumstances explained, to the appointment of a perfectly eligible officer whose selection does not contravene any of the Rules.
